

CAFÉ NOODLE ROJE ロジェ・カフェヌードル

Your Hosts: June and Koko

1. YAKISOBA DINNER 焼きそば (CHICKEN チキン OR PORK ポーク) 700

Stir-fried ramen-style egg noodles with spices, chicken or pork slices (your choice) and vegetables, and includes Koko's internationally acclaimed miso soup and in-season fruit. Margaret's #1 draft pick.

2. YAKISOBA DINNER 焼きそば (VEGETABLE 野菜) 700

Poetry in motion. June was born with spectacular grill wrist action, key to getting the proper mixing of yakisoba ingredients. Same as above except additional vegetables are substituted for chicken/pork.

3. GYOZA APPETIZER 餃子 400

Six of June's freshly-prepared pan-fried pot stickers, served with soy and vinegar sauce for dipping. Be careful or you'll be popping these babies like peanuts at the ballpark.

4. GYOZA DINNER 餃子定食 750

Six gyoza as above, served with rice and miso soup. Make no mistake, these aren't some factory made pre-packaged gyoza. Each is lovingly made by hand right here at the JapanBall Hall of Fame.

5. RAMEN ラーメン 600

Hearty prepared-daily clear soup stock with spices and oh-so-elegant noodles, garnished with chopped onion, bamboo shoots, and bean spouts. Bob lives for this with the gyoza appetizer and a beer.

6. FRIED RICE DINNER チャーハン定食 700

June works a wok of magic with his authentic fried rice recipe passed from generations in his family. Hall of Famer Joe Kleier gives it two big thumbs-up. Served with miso soup, a vegetable, and fruit.

7. SHOGA-YAKI DINNER しょうが焼き定食 (CHICKEN チキン OR PORK ポーク) 750

Shoga-yaki is a simple and very popular dish in Japan. Sautéed chicken or pork (your choice) and vegetables, along with rice and miso soup, make this Hall of Famer Leon's favorite repast.

8. NASU-NIKU-ITAME DINNER ナス肉定食 (CHICKEN チキン OR PORK ポーク) 850

Mayumi can't get enough of this. June whips this up especially for her and he'll do it for you, too. Sautéed eggplant and chicken or pork (your choice), comes with rice and miso soup.
